Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in your account agreement.

  Unless an Introductory rate is in effect, the periodic rate used to compute the INTEREST CHARGE for purchases is based on an index (the “Index”), which is the Prime Rate as published in the Money Rates section of The Wall Street Journal on the last business day of the month and is subject to change monthly on the first day of each month. Any change in the Index will be effective on the first day of the billing cycle that ends on or after the date of the change.

The information about the costs of the Card described in this application is accurate as of December, 2017. This information may change after that date. To find out what may have changed, call 1-800-553-5513 or write to Emery Federal Credit Union at 7890 E. Kemper Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45249.

California residents: Applicants: 1) may, after credit approval, use the credit card account up to its credit limit; 2) may be liable for amounts extended under the plan to any joint applicant. As required by law, you are hereby notified that a negative credit report reflecting on your credit record may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligations.

Ohio residents: Ohio anti-discrimination laws require creditors to make credit equally available to all credit worthy customers and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on individuals upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

New York and Vermont residents: At any time, we may obtain your credit reports, for any legitimate purpose associated with the account or the application or request for an account, including but not limited to reviewing, modifying, renewing and collecting on your account. On your request, you will be informed if such a report was ordered. If so, you will be given the name and address of the consumer reporting agency furnishing the report.

Married Wisconsin residents: No provision of any marital property agreement, unilateral statement, or court order applying to marital property will adversely affect a creditor’s interests unless prior to the time credit is granted, the creditor is furnished with a copy of the agreement, statement or court order, or has actual knowledge of the provision.
